By Harvey, March 12th, 1632.

NOTES.

[1] It appears from the first volume of the records of old Accomac (the only one which has been copied for the State Library) that James Knott lived in that county in 1632-35, and that his wife was named Eleanor.

[2] Francis West, born October 28th, 1586, was a son of the second Lord Delaware, and brother of Thomas, third Lord Delaware, and of Captain John West, Governors of Virginia. He was a member of the Virginia Company; came to the Colony with Newport about July, 1608, and was elected to the Council in August, 1609. In January, 1610, he returned to England; but came back to Virginia in the latter part of the same year, and succeeded Percey, when he left, as Commander at Jamestown, an office he held many years, as he also did that of member of the Council, to which body he belonged from 1619 to 1633. On March 22d, 1622, the Indians killed two men on his plantation "at Westover, about a mile from Berkeley Hundred." In November, 1622, he was commissioned Admiral of New England; went there in May or June, and again in August. He was in New England in September; but appears not to have remained long, as he was back in Virginia in February, 1624, when he was living at "West and Shirley Hundred Island." In the next year he was living in Elizabeth City, where the widow of his brother, Nathaniel West, and her infant son lived with him. About November, 1627, he was elected Governor of Virginia, and continued in office until March 5th, 1629, when, having been chosen to go to England as the agent of the Colony, Dr. John Pott was elected in his stead. During his stay in England he resisted the planting of Lord Baltimore's proposed Colony within the limits of Virginia. He returned to Virginia prior to December, 1631, and was present at a meeting of the Council February, 1633, after which date there is no mention of him in the records. He probably died about that time.

Assignment by Lyonell Roulston, of Keskyacke, gentleman, of the same lease, to his "loveing friend John Neale," January 14th, 1630. Witnesses Henry Hill and Henry Pennry.

NOTE.

[1] This name appears as Coulston, Goulston and Roulston, the latter appearing to be the correct form. The patentee was member of the House of Burgesses from Elizabeth City in 1629, and for York, 1632, and 1632-'3.

NOTE.

[1] Seth¹ Ward, the patentee, was probably a kinsman of Bishop Seth Ward; but was certainly not his son. He married ———, and had a son, Richard² Ward, of Henrico, who was a justice of that county in 1666, married Elizabeth ———, and died in 1682, having issue: I. Captain Seth³, of "Sheffield," on James river (in the present Chesterfield), where he was living in 1691. He was born in 1661, and married ———; II. Richard³, married Sarah Blackman, and had at least one son, Richard⁴, who removed to Cataret county, N. C., in or before 1746; III. Edward³, married ———, daughter of Gilbert Elam, Sr.; IV. John³, married Hannah ———; V. Elizabeth³.

Captain Seth³ and (——) Ward had issue: I. Benjamin⁴, of "Sheffield," married Anne, daughter of Henry Anderson, and died in 1732; II. Seth⁴, married Martha, daughter of Captain John Worsham, and died 1734.

Issue of Benjamin⁴ and Anne (Anderson) Ward: I. Col. Seth⁵, of "Sheffield," and "Wintopock," justice of Henrico, 1745, of Chesterfield, 1749, sheriff of Chesterfield and member of the House of Burgesses for that county; married ———, and died about 1769; II. Benjamin⁵; III. Henry⁵, of Amelia county, alive 1746; IV. Rowland⁵.

Martha⁶, married James Murray; V. Anne⁶.

Issue of Benjamin⁶ and Mary (——) Ward: I. Seth⁷; II. Maria⁷, born 1784, died 1826; married Peyton Randolph. She is remembered in the social tradition of Virginia as the object of John Randolph of Roanoke's only love.

Issue of Seth⁴ and Martha (Worsham) Ward; I. Seth⁵; II. Martha⁵; III. Elizabeth⁵.

There were other members of the family in Chesterfield, whose descent I have not been able to trace. Leonard Ward, of Chesterfield, died in 1772. He mentions in his will his wife, Anne, his sister, Sarah Walker, brothers Seth, John and William Ward, sister Anne Ligon and brother Joseph.

In Goode's "Virginia Cousins" is an account of the descendants of Seth and Mary (Goode) Ward.

Several members of the family removed from Chesterfield and Henrico to Amelia, and for a number of years their descendants were large landholders there. William Ward, and perhaps others, removed from Amelia to Kentucky.

(143) THOMAS WATTS, planter, lease of 50 acres in Elizabeth City, on a Creek called the Broad Creek and adjoining the lands of Launcelot Barnes and Owen Dawson. By Harvey, May 30th, 1634.

(145) MATHEW SMALLWOOD, merchant, lease of 500 acres on Bicknes bay, in Charles City County, bounded on the east by the land granted by patent to Captain Nathaniel Powell [1], deceased, now in the possession of William Barber, mariner, and thence extending west to a Creek which divides it from the land called Chaplin's Choice [2], and abutting northerly on the main river. By Harvey, March 30th, 1634.

NOTES.

[1] Captain Nathaniel Powell, who was, says a contemporary, "born a gentleman and bred a soldier." He married a daughter of William Tracy (who brought a party of colonists to Virginia in 1620), came to the Colony in 1607, was appointed to the Council in 1621, and was, for a short time, Governor. With all his family he was killed by the Indians in the massacre of 1622. In 1626, Thomas Powell, his elder brother, and other brothers and sisters, all in England, petitioned the government in regard to his estate. They stated that William Powell, who had gotten possession of all of it in Virginia, was no relation.

[2] Chaplin's Choice, in the present county of Prince George, was a plantation settled by Isaac Chaplin; was afterwards, as appears by a later patent, bought by Anthony Wyatt, member of the House of Burgesses for Charles City county, and was, about 1690, owned by his son, John Wyatt.

(146) WILLIAM CONNER, of Elizabeth City, planter, lease of 60 acres on the back river in said county, about two miles within the narrow of said river, on the eastern side of "a damm commonly called the little Otter damm," and thence extending easterly towards the land of Thomas Thornbury [1]. By Harvey, Aug. 13th, 1634.

NOTE.

[1] Thomas Thornbury, born 1604, came to Virginia in 1616, was a servant in 1625, lived a few years in Maryland, and was a member of Assembly there in 1649, and was burgess for Elizabeth City, July 1653.

(147) WILLIAM HAMPTON, of Elizabeth City, planter, lease of 100 acres on the east side of Harris' Creek, in said county. By Harvey, Aug. 13th, 1634.

(148) ABRAHAM ROOTE, of Hogg Island in the county of James City, planter, 50 acres at a place commonly called "The Rocks" in James City County. By Harvey, August 13th, 1634.

(149) WILLIAM STAFFORD [1], of Kethe's Creek, in the county of Warwick River, planter, lease of 100 acres on the west side of Kethe's Creek, about a mile and a half upwards from the mouth, over against the land now in the possession of William Robinett, and adjoining the land of Francis Rookbill. By Harvey, August 20th, 1634.

NOTE.

[1] William Stafford afterwards removed to York county. There is on record there, dated March 3rd, 1644, the inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of William Stafford, "late deceased," which was at Chiskiack in the possession of John Cluverius, clerk, valued at 30,681 lbs tobacco, and including 8 negroes. William Stafford was born in 1607, and his wife was named Rebena (Hotten). Among the head-rights to a grant to him in 1635 is Christopher Stafford. February 2d, 1657, it is stated in the York records that Joseph Watkins was guardian of Humphrey Stafford, son and heir of Christopher Stafford, deceased, having married his mother, Elizabeth. In the General Court records, 1675, there is mention that Mrs. Beazley, of James City county, in her will, dated 1664, left a negro to her cousin, Mr. Humphrey Stafford, of Virginia. On September 30th, 1681, Humphrey and John Gwyn, in their own right, and as attorneys of Humphrey Stafford, petitioned the General Court, claiming that they (the three) were the nearest allied to Colonel John Burnham, deceased of Middlesex, and asked to be allowed to bring proof. Another entry in the General Court records, July 20th, 1671, shows that Robert Ruffin was guardian of the orphans of Benedict Stafford.

(150) CHRISTOPHER BRANCH [1], planter, of Arrowhattocks [2], within the county of Henrico, lease of 100 acres adjoining the land granted to John Griffin and John Sheffield, and abutting easterlie on the main river. By Harvey, October 20th, 1634.

NOTES.

[1] Christopher Branch was a member of the House of Burgesses from Henrico, 1639 (Robinson's Notes), and was the first patentee of "Kingsland," in the present Chesterfield county, an estate which was owned by many generations of his descendants. An account of the family, derived from the records of Henrico and Chesterfield, &c., &c., was published in the Richmond Critic.

[2] Arrowhattocks is laid down on Smith's map as being on the north bank of the river, immediately above the present Dutch Gap canal. There was afterwards, as appears from the records in Henrico, a farm named "Arrowhattocks," owned by members of the Cox family, which is believed to be the same as that of the late Mr. Henry Cox.

(151) GILBERT SYMONDS, of Elizabeth City, planter, lease of 100 acres on the old Pocason river, adjoining the land of John Radon [or Rhadon]. By Harvey, October 20th, 1634.

(152) NICHOLAS HARWOOD [1], cooper, lease of 50 acres on the eastern shore in the county of Accomac, adjoining the land granted to William Blore (now in the tenure of William Burdett [2]), being the land granted to Roger Saunders, deceased, in 1628, and assigned to said Harwood by George Traveller [3]. Confirmed by Harvey, Oct. 20th, 1634.

NOTES.

[1] The will of Nicholas Harwood, dated April 1st, 1639, and proved April 28th, 1639, is recorded in the first volume of the old "Accomac" records at Northampton C. H. He directs that all his debts to Mr. Stringer for physic, and Goodman Granger for dyett, &c., shall be paid; leaves 500 lbs. of tobacco to his godson, Nicholas Granger, to buy him a cow calf; his clothes to Jo. Parke and Jo. Webster; crop of tobacco and crop tools to "my boy Stephen;" friend Jo. Tomkin executor; Mr. Cotton to make a sermon; "and soe I leave this Worlde desiringe all good people to pray for my Soule's health."

[2] "Mr. William Burdett" was a commissioner (justice) of Acco-

mac, 1634-1643, vestryman 1639, member of the House of Burgesses 1639 (Accomac Records). In April, 1639, a certificate for 1,050 acres of land was granted him. The will of William Burdett, gentleman, dated July 22d, and proved August 7th, 1643, is recorded at Northampton Court House; legatees: only son Thomas Burdett, wife Alice (she had been the widow of George Traveller) and friend Jane Jackson; £5 to the lower parish of Northampton for a communion cup and plate, or cup only; son Thomas to have a dozen silver spoons, and his name is to be engraved on them; legacies to wife's son George Traveller and her daughter Elizabeth. If his brother Richard Burdett should come into this country, the overseers of the will are to be helpful to him out of the estate. Mr. John Rozier [minister], Captain William Stone [afterwards Governor of Maryland] and Mr. Thomas Johnson to take especial care of the education of "my tender sonn" Thos. Burdett, the son, was alive 1652. The will of Frances Burdett was proved in Accomac 1640 or 1641.

[3] In 1635 George Traveller was granted a certificate by Accomack court of the importation of four persons. He had bought from Blore the land sold to Harwood.
